BlueLuxe.com spins-off from ItalyCharms.com to offer genuine handmade jewelry from top celebrity designers. Designs are worn by famous celebrities and featured in top fashion magazines.

(PRWEB) November 27, 2005 -- BlueLuxe is a new online store that has spun off from ItalyCharms.com and offers a wide variety of handmade jewelry by famous designers. Much of the jewelry is worn by famous celebrities and can be seen in top fashion magazines such as Marie Claire, Seventeen, Glamour, InStyle, Lucky, Modern Bride and more. Celebrities wearing the designs found at BlueLuxe include Eva Longora of Desperate Houswives, Kathy Lee Gifford and Geri Ryan. These are the real items by the real designers, not imitations. BlueLuxe has all the latest styles and trends and intends to add new items as they are released by the designers.

Designers offered at BlueLuxe include: Anne Koplik, Ben-Amun, Calico Juno Designs, Catherine Popesco (La Vie), Flying Lizard, GR Atelier Limoges, Julie Sandlau, La Contessa, Michal Golan, Patrice, Roberta Chiarella, Sheila Fajl, Sierra, What's in Your Heart, and many more.

The types of jewelry offered include the latest styles of earrings, bracelets, necklaces and pins. All items are 100% handcrafted using semi-precious stones and real gold and silver. Some designers use vintage designs in creating their jewelry, others are more modern. Jewelry designs include the use of beads (beaded jewelry), hammered gold, genuine Swarovski crystals, and other top-quality fashionable materials.

BlueLuxe also offers a wide selection of authentic Limoges Boxes imported directly from the manufacturer (Atelier d'art de Limoges) in France. Each and every Limoges Box is guaranteed to be 100% genuine & handpainted, and comes with a certificate of authenticity and gift box.

BlueLuxe has also launched a news blog (BlueLuxe Jewelry News) to keep you up to date on the latest jewelry industry trends and items available in their online store.

BlueLuxe Designer Jewelry & Gifts

by Kristina Kopachy-Kendrick

Good jewelry is a staple for any outfit, adding life and expressing your individual flair, but finding the right piece at the right price is an all too time consuming challenge. Wouldn't it be nice to sit back with a Starbucks latte as the hottest designers flaunt their precious baubles for you to pick through at your leisure? BlueLuxe has decided to make that daydream a reality that is as close as your computer. Sporting the latest and greatest in designer handmade jewelry and Limoges boxes, www.blueluxe.com has something for everyone's unique style.

After perusing the website for just a few moments, I discovered numerous adornments that my life would simply not be complete without. Among the opulent treasures to be spied was a dazzling golden leaf necklace accented by pacific opal and glimmering Swarovski Crystals from Catherine Popesco's line La Vie Parisienne. As one of the many featured designers that can be found at BlueLuxe, Popesco's jewelry is created using the original molds Parisian workshops utilized throughout the 1900's. Constructed of "Old Silver" which is made through a unique French process of laying sterling silver or 14K gold plate over a copper base, each piece is truly an art to be treasured.

The exquisite necklace arrived in a silvery blue box topped by a navy satin ribbon ready to be given as the perfect gift to a loved one or as a luxurious personal indulgence. Beautifully presented and coupled with a certificate of authenticity, the intricately detailed craftsmanship was truly a sight to behold.

Stunned that such a remarkable piece of jewelry was handmade, I decided to check out the other incredible lines at www.blueluxe.com. What Is In Your Heart? (And What Is In Your Soul?) offers sterling silver case-like pendants that can be customized by adding a number of gold or CZ letters and charms, making each piece uniquely you. Ben-Amun by Isaac Manevitz, the son of a fabled jeweler for Egypt's royal family, dazzles with his awe inspiring crochet and bead pieces that have already graced the covers of several well-known publications. Anne Koplik brings vintage-inspired jewelry into the trendy, high fashion world of today with her line that showcases exquisite enameling and sparkling Swarovski crystals. Simple and elegant, Adina Jewelry Design pendants have graced the necks of celebrities such as Demi Moore, Brooke Shields as well as Debra Messing and have been featured on a variety of well known television shows.

BlueLuxe also offers a large selection of genuine, hand-painted porcelain Limoges boxes imported directly from France. Originally practical items for the storage of small personal products, Limoges have a 200+ year history as decorative works of art cherished by collectors around the world. Each box is hand-crafted containing small imperfections that add to its charm and unique nature.

With so much to offer, and with each line's products being truly a work of art in themselves, www.blueluxe.com is definitely a must see for anyone who dares to claim they have a sense of taste and fashion.

Twelfth Street Wedge: Even though the summer is gone, I still like searching for cool summer gear - I suppose it's a bit torturous but what can I say - I love window shopping! The wood wedge heel by Twelfth Street is quite stylish with its turquoise blue elastic band offsetting the basic brown. The heel measures at 3 3/4". With the height and the wood, I'm not sure how comfy they would be, but at such a great price, I would take the chance.

Price: $149. View Info

Roberta Chiarella Earrings: Tiger's Eye is a stone that looks best when used with gold. I find that it brings out the various hues of the stone really nicely. I've said this once on a previous post and a commenter expressed that tiger's eye is such cheap stone and far from beautiful - so? Expensive or not doesn't really matter. It embodies great color and would look nice against any skin color - that's versatility! Roberta Chiarella's Gelato Earrings are made of 22K gold plated over brass. An elegant earring for a special occasion and no one would be none the wiser that they weren't solid gold. They are 2 1/2" in length and 3/4" in width. Check out BlueLuxe for more fabulous jewelry. The prices range from under $20 to over $100, but each piece is well made and creative regardless of price. Price: $100. View Info

Online Retailer Offering New Jewelry from Catherine Weitzman

WHITE PLAINS, NEW YORK June 01, 2007 Apparel & Textiles News

(PRLEAP.COM) BlueLuxe is proud to offer the new line of Catherine Weitzman jewelry to their customers. Catherine Weitzman has been creating her signature line of silver and glass jewelry for the past six years, with her inspiration emerging from her own innate sense of organic style and her love and respect for the ocean. This is represented in many of her pieces which include Coral, Branch and Starfish designs.

Drawing equally from each of her experiences, Catherine developed her own unique process and style of glass fabrication. She designs much of the work with her husband, Scott Diamond, and is blessed to produce the jewelry with an extremely gifted handmade production team in their California and Hawaii studios.

One of the most popular designs already is the matching Blue Topaz Branch Earrings and Necklace. At $110 for the earrings, and $85 for the necklace, customers can create a fully matching set of high-quality, handcrafted jewelry for under $200.

All Catherine Weitzman jewelry will be shipped in a gift box, along with a care card to explain the best way to keep your jewelry looking new and fresh.

Sterling Silver: Silver will naturally tarnish when exposed to the air, so storing it in an airtight container (ziplocks work great!) will help to minimize the amount of care necessary. To maintain the matte finish, you can use a toothbrush with any white toothpaste, or even bon-ami household cleaner.

18K Vermeil Gold: Catherine Weitzman's gold vermeil jewelry is a heavy, 18k gold plating over sterling silver. The quality of the plating is excellent, and to ensure that it lasts a long time, please store your jewelry in an airtight container when not being worn.

Patina (Blackened) Sterling Silver: To achieve the matte black finish on sterling silver, the metal is oxidized until its surface reaches a uniform black color, then sprayed with a protective coating. The patina jewelry should not be cleaned like sterling silver and one should avoid exposure to harsh chemicals.

Throughout 2007 BlueLuxe will continue to look for, and add, new designers which it feels best represent their customers' styles and tastes.

About BlueLuxe:

BlueLuxe.com is an online boutique offering handmade designer jewelry from famous designers featured in top fashion magazines and worn by many celebrities. You'll find a chic selection of earrings, necklaces and more from designers including Adina Necklaces, Kevia, Paige Sargisson, Wendy Mink, Pade Vavra, Julie Sandlau, Wasabi and Catherine Weitzman.

About Catherine Weitzman:

Catherine Weitzman has been creating her signature line of silver and glass jewelry for the past six years. Her inspiration emerges from her own innate sense of organic style, her love and respect for the ocean, and her extensive world travels. She utilizes sterling silver, blackened silver, and 18k gold vermeil.
